CHRISTMAS MAIL WARNING IS EARLY OWING TO WAR JAM

"Mail Early. Christmas is but two months away."

This slogan will be sounded in Washington and throughout the country in a day or two in response to instructions sent out by the Postoffice Department to postmasters.

The mail early campaign is beginning earlier than usual this year because of the congested condition of the transportation systems of the country as a result of the war.

Heavy Rush Anticipated. A heavy rush of Christmas mail is anticipated by the Postoffice Department as a result of national prosperity. Senders of Christmas mail will be permitted to put a line on the outside, "Do not open until Christmas," or words to that effect.

The concentration of the draft army and other military units will bring an enormous quantity of Christmas mail to the camps and cantonments throughout the country. This, with the normal increase, is expected to make the quantity of Christmas mail double that of last year, which was a record year.

Postmaster Chance and Superintendent of Mails Haycock are making extensive plans for the handling of this mail in the Washington office. Washington generally has more outgoing than incoming Christmas mail, but more than the normal increase is expected this year, because of the number of Washington boys at Camp Meade, at Annapolis, Md., and in France.

Parcels For Soldiers. Christmas parcels for soldiers, sailors, or marines in France should be mailed at the city postoffice or at classified stations, but not at contract or drug store stations, under instructions issued by the department. These parcels must be opened and inspected by the postmaster to comply with customs regulations.

All articles that are permitted in the domestic parcel post can be sent to France. Postmasters have been warned to exercise care in excluding intoxicants and explosives, however.

SEND US CHOCOLATES, IS CALL FROM CAMP

"Please send us some of that good chocolate candy as soon as you can," reads a telegram received here today from Maj. Fred Cooke, of the 160th Infantry stationed at Camp Lee, Postersburg, Va., by the Adrienne de Lafayette, Chapter of the D. A. R.
